Mr. Merry says he can move 2500 tons of freight in one 'tow,' six miles an hour. Of course the lateness of the season will prevent the making of more than a trial from here this fall. But that trial will open up a magnificent prospect for next season. There are some ears that the grain may 'sweat' going through the southern latitudes, but many are of the opinion that this is not unavoldable.' Among the parties outside of Dubuque who are interesting themselves it this matter, are Capt. Dost, of Lassile; Chadburn & Foster, St. Louis; and C.T. Budicke, New Orleans. The two latter
